

Nashville For All of Us Stands Behind Campaign to Defeat Misguided, Reckless Referendum

(Nashville)—Nashville For All of Us (N4AOU) leaders said today that its coalition is determined to defeat the secretly-funded July referendum, saying it “flies in the face of who we are as Nashvillians.” N4AOU is a coalition of residents, community and advocacy organizations, faith and immigrant groups, business leaders and local media which formed in 2009 to defeat the “English Only” charter change referendum.

“This reckless, misguided charter referendum flies in the face of who are as Nashvillians and what it means to be a welcoming, diverse, creative and financially sound southern city,” said Mark Eatherly, on behalf of the N4AOU steering committee. “The dark-money interests and radical extremists behind this scheme aren’t interested in reducing the size of your tax bill one lick. They are here to dismantle our democracy, sow chaos across our government, divide our residents and damage our reputation.”

“We have seen this movie before,” Eatherly added. “Nashville For All of Us has successfully beaten back previous cynical attacks on our democratic values. We are determined to do everything in our collective power to see this callous and dangerous referendum defeated on July 27.”
